The 1992 Higher Education Act Amendments, and the regulations implementing those Amendments, require that the students pay for anticipated cash payments that have been incurred throughout their obligation period.

What this means is some or all of the Federal Pell Grant and student loan monies received by you in anticipation of your attendance at the institution will have to be refunded to the Federal Government. You will be required to repay the institution for most of the amounts refunded if you withdraw before the end of your obligation period.

Any questions about your refund responsibilities, should you withdraw before the completion of the program should be discussed with the Financial Aid Director or Accounting Manager before signing the enrollment agreement.
